

Announcement: 1st of August 2014

LIVIA Group and Elephant Equity are forming an emerging market investment vehicle, investing over 40 million EUR in emerging markets.

The new investment vehicle LIVIA Emerging Markets AG, based in Munich, is financing firms and ventures in emerging markets in Central-Eastern Europe, South-East Asia, Sub-Saharan Africa and Latin America. LIVIA Emerging Markets AG combines the investment activities in emerging markets of Prof. Dr. Dr. Löw and Dr. Felix-Michael Weber.

LIVIA Emerging Markets AG is targeting investments with outstanding growth potential in interrelated businesses in the field of infrastructure, natural resources and agriculture, retail and logistics, energy and gas - especially renewable energy. The investment vehicle is able to invest over € 40 million across a range of companies, projects and assets, including public listed companies. LIVIA Emerging Markets adds value not only by injecting capital, but also by providing operating and management expertise. Moreover, LIVIA Emerging Markets AG's aim is to hold a strategic equity position in the companies and to participate in its growth with a mid- and long-term view. The company is headed by Dr. Felix-Michael Weber (38).

LIVIA Group, founded by Prof. Dr. Dr. Peter Löw, is a leading Germany based privately held investment firm. LIVIA Group invests in a diverse spectrum of assets, ranging from corporates, real estate, global investments and art. LIVIA Group has an asset base of more than € 400 million of which € 200 million funds are available for the group's corporate investment activities. Based on the vast experience of Prof. Dr. Dr. Peter Löw gained through approximately 200 company buyouts, numerous trade sales and no less than three public offers, spread over various branches and countries, the LIVIA Group offers in-house support to all its affiliates through its legal department, the analyst desk, and co-financing facilities.

Elephant Equity, founded in 2006 by Dr. Felix-Michael Weber, is a leading Germany based privately held investment advisory firm focusing on emerging markets in South-East Asia, in particular India. Elephant Equity has developed commercialization strategies for several companies and is specialized in structuring and arranging new businesses and ventures. Elephant Equity provides long-term strategic equity in partnerships with companies developing promising technologies, products and concepts. Dr. Weber maintains a worldwide network of partners and advisors and is a leading emerging market specialist.

Contact:

LIVIA Emerging Markets AG

Alter Hof 5

80531 Munich

www.livia-group.com

Tel: +49 89 5527 58 0

Mail: weber@livia-group.com